The St. Michaels Art League is very pleased to announce its Columbus Day Weekend Show and Sale. The show that was scheduled for the Labor Day

Weekend was unfortunately postponed due to pending bad weather, but the dates for the Columbus Day Weekend show of October 8th and 9th are great days to get out in the fresh air and enjoy this beautiful event of art and demonstrations.

Over 30 league artists will be displaying their original work. Framed designs for the “Celebrate St. Michaels” banners that hang on Talbot Street each year will be for sale, as well as previous years’ street banners. There will be artists demonstrating painting in mediums: acrylic, colored pencils, oils, pastels, and watercolors.
