

Talbot Spy Article, October 2016

<http://talbotspy.org/st-michaels-art-league-announces-winners-of-its-october-show-just-desserts/>

The St. Michaels Art League is pleased to announce the Winners of the judged art show “Just Desserts” that was held at the Talbot County Library in St. Michaels during the month of October. The theme was called “Just Desserts,” and was open to interpretation by the artists.

The Show was judged by Nancy Tankersley, a nationally known artist and co-founder of Plein Air Easton

Winners were: First place, “Fruits du Terrior,” by Mary Ellen Mabe. Second place, “Where’s The Cheese,” by Pat Lang, Third place, “A Very Big Lick,” by Jo Merrill. Honorable mentions to Virginia Perran, Elinor Peterson, Kevin Snelling, and Jane Anderson.

SMAL is sponsored, in part, by the Talbot County Arts Council with support from the Maryland State Arts Council.

For information on the St. Michaels Art League meetings, events, membership and other information, visit www.smartleague.org.